Our call to worship is from Psalm 98: Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises. Sing praises to the Lord with the lyre, with the lyre and the sound of melody. With trumpets and the sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the Lord. Indeed, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last. Eunice T. McGarrah, A Study of the Belhar Confession and its Accompanying Letter (Louisville: Office of Theology and Worship), p. 13. Call to Worship. Come, Lord God, to receive our worship. Come, Lord Jesus, to receive our praise. Call to worship prayer (a short prayer suitable to say just before worshipping God in song) Father God, You have created us to be makers of music! Thank you for the sounds of heaven that connect us to your eternal Kingdom. We thank you for the birdsong, for the breaking waves upon a shore, for the sound of laughter and for the songs you have given us. Our call to worship is from I Corinthians 13: And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love. I Cor. 13:3. God of Gods: We come to worship today to hear your good news, to hear of faith, hope and love ringing out from your kingdom. We know that doubt, fear and hatred can shake even the strongest.
