Loop was born from a feeling of frustration with the online gift-buying experience. While trying to buy meaningful gifts for our families and friends, we realized that something major was broken: online stores simply weren't designed for shopping for someone else, let alone the rich and complex experience of choosing and buying a product as a gift for someone you care about. Accelerating Building Efficiency focuses on eight categories of policies and actions that can help decision-makers plan for transformative change in their cities. It highlights policies that can drive building energy performance, actions that cities can take to lead by example, and the enabling conditions that will deliver success.
